1. Introduction

EDIT Work Package 7 designed a new layout for the EDIT ATBI+M newsletter in collaboration with WP1. Hence, the design followed the known colours and forms of EDIT publications.

This new EDIT ATBI+M newsletter replaces the former email updates and offers a new, more reader-friendly layout, in the hope that the audiences finds this format both appealing and informative.

The newsletter is sent via email to a members list and includes a link to the EDIT ATBI+M website where the newsletter can be downloaded from.

The distribution list includes researchers that have been/will be visiting ATBI+M sites, other researchers, universities, natural parks and other relevant parties.

The contributions included reports from all EDIT WP7 team members as well as updates from the ATBI+M representatives in Gemer, Slovakia, and Parc National du Mercantour and Parco Naturale delle Alpi Marittime. These reports were illustrated with figures and photos including a presentation of all team members.
